Second Sunday of Advent / Druga Niedziela Adwentu

Bishop Frank J. Rodimer, JCD, DD 1927-2018

Born at Rockaway, New Jersey, October 25, 1927; Ordained a priest, May 19, 1951; Ordained Sixth Bishop of Paterson, February 28, 1978. Retired June 1, 2004. Bishop Rodimer's ministry to the people of the Paterson Diocese began on May 19, 1951, when he was ordained to the priesthood in St. John's Cathedral here. Born and raised in Rockaway, he attended Seton Hall Prep School, South Orange; St. Charles College, Catonsville, Maryland; St. Mary's Seminary, Baltimore, Maryland; Immaculate Conception Seminary, Darlington; and Catholic University of America, Washington D.C. where he received the degree of Licentiate in Sacred Theology in June 1951. He returned to the university after his ordination for graduate studies. He received his doctorate in canon law in 1954. In 1951 at the time of Bishop Rodimer's ordination, he was part of a class of seven who would become priests of the Paterson Diocese - Msgr. Leo Carey, Msgr. John Corr, Father John Heusser, Msgr. Brendan Madden, Msgr. Vincent Puma and Msgr. Stanislaus Schinski. "It's an honor to have serve in the same diocese with these men as a priest and as a bishop. This has been a very special blessing," said Bishop Rodimer. When Bishop Rodimer became the sixth bishop of the diocese on Feb. 28, 1978, he had the unique distinction of being installed as the only priest of the Paterson Diocese to have ever been raised to the episcopacy. His entire 60-year priesthood ministry has been in the Paterson Diocese and he has known every bishop of the diocese personally. When he decided to be a priest, it was the Paterson's first bishop, Bishop Thomas McLaughlin, from whom he had to ask permission to become a seminarian. Serving the Church on a national level, Bishop Rodimer was a member of the National Council of Catholic Bishops Committee on the Liturgy. He served the NCCB Administrative Committee and he served as chairman of the NCCB Committee for the American College at Louvain, Belgium. In retirement, Bishop Emeritus Rodimer resided in Green Pond where he served the diocese whenever he could. "Every day I still pray for the people of the diocese and their intentions and I always hope today to still encourage my brother priests in whatever way I can to continue this very important ministry," he said. Earlier this year, he moved to St. Joseph's Home for the Elderly in Totowa, where he was residing at the time of his death on Dec. 6, 2018. Rest in Peace. Dobry Jezu a nasz Panie daj mu wieczne spoczywanie. Niech odpoczywa w pokoju wiecznym. Amen.
