SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Blessed is the man who trusts in the Lord, whose hope is the Lord. He is like a tree planted beside the waters that stretches out its roots to the stream. It fears not the heat when it comes, its leaves stay green. In the year of drought, it shows no distress, but still bears fruit...When Jesus came down the mountain, he stopped at a level stretch...then raising his eyes to his disciples, he said: ‘Blest are you poor...who hunger...are weeping for life, strength and the power...when they shall hate you.’”

Saint Luke offers us the ‘sermon on the plain’ while we are also familiar with Matthew’s ‘sermon on the mount.’ The beatitudes of both, varying slightly, offer us a plan for our lives as disciples, relating what confronts us, our opportunities for growth, and the promised rewards.

The image of the strong tree of Jeremiah portrays all of us, trusting in the Lord, resisting the many evils which confront us. We cannot do it alone, but draw our strength from a life of prayer, celebration of the sacraments and being ‘people of the beatitudes.’
